Fill up at Jeffrey's Hillside Cafe: An inviting, casual American spot at Hillside Inn for locally sourced breakfast, lunch and weekend brunch.

Visit the Charles M. Schulz Museum and Research Center: Charlie Brown, Snoopy and the rest of the Peanuts gang charmed families around the world in daily comic strips for more than 50 years. Creator Charles M. Schulz spent the last 30 years of his life and career in Santa Rosa. The Charles M. Schulz Museum celebrates his art through exhibits and programs that are perfect for kids and will delight the kid in you.

Pro Tip: Our Events Calendar features events happening at the Schulz Museum and elsewhere in Santa Rosa. Plug in your travel date(s) to see if there’s something special going on!

Turn figure eights & sip hot cocoa at Snoopy’s Home Ice and Warm Puppy Café*: You don’t even have to move the car -- The Redwood Empire Ice Arena shares a campus with the Schulz Museum. This magical indoor ice rink is the coolest spot in town. Carve up the ice and when you need to warm up, grab a Peppermint Patty Hot Chocolate. P.S. They also serve Taylor Made Farms Organic Coffee for parents who need a pick-me-up.

*Note: Make sure to check the public skate hours at the ice rink

Shoppers’ Bonus Stop: Next door, Snoopy’s Gallery and Gift Shop features over 1,500 unique PEANUTS™ products including one-of-a-kind collectibles only available there.

Grab lunch at La Rosa Tequileria and Grille: Featuring an elevated execution and approach to Mexican and Latin cuisine. La Rosa Tequileria & Grille strives to take flavors found in traditional Mexican food and creates exciting modern dishes while celebrating favorite classics.
Family Fun Day

- Bonus Stop: If you’ve got little ones aged 10 and under, make time for the Children’s Museum of Sonoma County. This indoor-outdoor play space provides more than 40,000 square feet of hands-on, interactive science and art exhibits to entertain and educate. Open until 4pm daily, except Tuesdays.

- Search for Snoopy and friends: You can discover more than 70 different statues of the Peanuts gang scattered in and around Santa Rosa. We recommend starting in Santa Rosa’s Historic Railroad Square. Grab a selfie with your favorites!

- Have a lakeside dinner at the new Bear Republic Brewpub in Rohnert Park. This family-owned brewery started in Sonoma County more than 20 years ago, and has continued to thrive since gaining international recognition for their Racer 5 IPA. The newest development is their delicious new brewpub location, overlooking Lake Sonoma. The hearty menu has plenty of options for kids, and the whole family can enjoy the outdoor seating and play games of giant jenga, Connect 4, Cornhole, foosball and more.
